Kristina Wesch is a Partner and Chair of Wiggin and Dana's Health Care Department. Kristina advises a wide range of health care providers such as hospitals, physicians and physician groups, skilled nursing facilities, retirement communities, and other long-term care providers to assist them in meeting their strategic, financial and mission-based goals. Kristina routinely counsels clients on general corporate matters, mergers, acquisitions, DIP and healthcare finance and lending transactions, RFP processes, and reorganizations. She also has broad experience representing health care providers in bankruptcy court matters, including representation of bidders in 363 sales and asset acquisitions, and representation of chapter 11 debtors. Kristina has successfully led certificate of need, licensure and other regulatory applications. As co-chair of the firm's Restructuring and Distressed Transactions Practice Group, Kristina is uniquely positioned to quickly provide creative and practical solutions to clients operating in an industry subject to volatility and rapid change.

She assists clients with obtaining and maintaining tax-exempt and public charity status and with compliance with state nonprofit laws.
