

Labor and Employment Associate

Wiggin and Dana LLP seeks a labor and employment associate for its New Haven, Stamford or New York office. Qualified applicants will have 2-4 years of law firm experience advising and counseling management on employee relations issues and representing companies in employment-related litigation. Excellent writing skills and top academic credentials required.

The target base pay range for this role in New York and Connecticut is $155,000 – $192,500 and is dependent on experience and other relevant factors.