Kevin is Chair of Wiggin and Dana's Litigation Department and a seasoned trial lawyer with a national practice. He represents Fortune 500 companies and privately held businesses in complex civil litigation, with a focus on business disputes, product liability, and aviation. Kevin has successfully resolved high-stakes matters in federal and state courts across a range of industries, including aviation, financial services, healthcare, and technology. His cases often involve technically complex products and systems, such as jet engines, pharmaceuticals, medical devices, and software, and span claims including breach of contract, tortious interference, unfair trade practices, patent infringement, wrongful death, product liability, and constitutional and civil rights.

Kevin is ranked as a leading lawyer by Chambers USA for Nationwide Aviation Litigation. He is also consistently recognized by Benchmark Litigation as a "Litigation Star," by Lexology Index for aviation litigation, and by Super Lawyers for aviation litigation, product liability defense, and business litigation.

Kevin is a member of the highly selective Product Liability Advisory Council and chairs the firm's Product Liability and Aviation practices. In these areas, he has counseled and defended product designers, manufacturers, sellers, owners, operators, and insurers across a wide range of industries, including aviation, pharmaceuticals and medical devices, sporting goods, consumer products, food, and industrial equipment.

He also represents clients in commercial, contract, and intellectual property disputes involving investment banking, mergers and acquisitions, patent infringement, trade secrets, unfair and deceptive trade practices (CUTPA), RICO, antitrust, and other business tort claims.

Additionally, Kevin has advised and defended physicians, hospitals, and other healthcare entities in acquisition-related and commercial disputes, as well as in numerous medical malpractice and healthcare-related actions involving medical services, products, and devices with significant damage claims.

In addition to his active practice, Kevin devotes substantial time to firm leadership and the bar. He serves as Chair of the Litigation Department and is an immediate past member of the firm's Executive and Compensation Committees. He is a Founding Member of the Federal Bar Association's Connecticut chapter and was appointed by the Judges of the U.S. District Court for the District of Connecticut to serve on its Federal Grievance Committee. He also serves as the Connecticut State Chair of the International Association of Defense Counsel, is a James W. Cooper Fellow of the Connecticut Bar Foundation, and is the immediate past Treasurer and Finance Chair of the Board of Directors of Connecticut Statewide Legal Services. He is a proud recipient of the firm's Pro Bono Achievement Award.

Before joining the firm, Kevin served as a law clerk to the Honorable Thomas F. Hogan of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia and to the Honorable Barrington D. Parker of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. He graduated with honors from Georgetown Law, where he served as Editor-in-Chief of The Georgetown Law Journal and was elected to the Order of the Coif. He earned his bachelor's degree with honors from Yale University.
