

Legally Female: What does it mean to be Ms. JD?

Saturday – 1:45 pm to 3:00 pm

Is It A Man's World? Women Practitioners in the Legal Profession

This panel will bring together women who have chosen legal careers in the public or private sectors, such as in the government, law firms, and as in-house counsel, to discuss the obstacles they have faced in what was historically a man's world. Topics will include: How can women succeed in such an environment? If so, what is the price of that success? What does the glass ceiling look like for women lawyers in private industry? What can women within private industry do to improve opportunities for other women?

Panelists:

- Alais L. M. Griffin
- Victoria Shin
- Maureen Weaver

Click for further information