WIGGIN
WIGGIN AND DANA

Samantha Crone

ASSOCIATE

scrone@wiggin.com
New Haven: +1 203 498 4775

Samantha is an Associate at Wiggin and Dana. She first joined the firm after serving as a Summer Associate, where she researched issues involving the admissibility of evidence, the regulation of artificial intelligence, and the administration of employee benefit plans.

Prior to joining the firm, Samantha gained experience as a judicial intern for the Honorable Thomas O. Farrish of the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut, where she prepared draft decisions and research memoranda.

Samantha earned her J.D. with high honors from the University of Connecticut School of Law, where she served as Lead Notes and Comments Editor of the Connecticut Law Review and received the CALI Excellence Award in several courses. She also received certificates in Insurance Law and Regulation and Health Law. Samantha earned her B.A., cum laude, in Government and English from Connecticut College.

Education

- University of Connecticut School of Law (J.D.)
  - high honors
- Connecticut College (B.A.)
  - cum laude

Bar Admissions

- Connecticut