Dana is an Associate in Wiggin and Dana's New Haven office.

Dana first joined Wiggin and Dana as a summer associate, where she worked on both transactional and litigation matters, including drafting an affirmative asylum application, creating a standardized due diligence request list, and researching state antitrust and unjust enrichment laws.

Dana served as a judicial intern to the Honorable S. Dave Vatti of the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut, where she drafted a recommended ruling on a Social Security appeal. She served as a legal intern with the Office of the Federal Defender for the District of Connecticut, where she drafted motions for reduction in sentence under the First Step Act. She also practiced for several years as a Board Certified Behavior Analyst, managing the behavioral health services for clients with autism and their families in the state of Connecticut.

Dana received her J.D., magna cum laude, from Quinnipiac University School of Law, where she was a member of the Moot Court Society and Mock Trial Society. At Quinnipiac, she won Best Overall Advocate and Best Overall Brief in the Dean Terence H. Benbow Intramural Moot Court Competition and received the National Association of Women Lawyers Award and the Excellence in Oral Advocacy Award.
