

Madiha M. Malik

COUNSEL

mmalik@wiggin.com

New York: +1 212 551 2604

Madiha M. Malik is Counsel in Wiggin and Dana's Health Care Department, focusing on regulatory and transactional matters.

Madiha regularly counsels long-term care, post-acute care, behavioral health, and other health care providers in a wide range of regulatory, compliance, and risk management issues. Madiha also frequently advises health care providers on facility licensing and changes of ownership. She has extensive experience representing providers before the Connecticut Department of Public Health, Department of Social Services, and the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services.

Madiha has been recognized as a New Leader in the Law by the Connecticut Law Tribune in 2022 and by Best Lawyers in America as Ones to Watch since 2021.

Madiha earned her J.D. from the University of Connecticut School of Law, where she served as the Notes and Comments Editor for the Connecticut Law Review and Co-Editor-in-Chief for the Pro Se Student Newspaper. Madiha received her B.A. from The George Washington University with a dual degree in Journalism and International Affairs.

Education

- University of Connecticut School of Law (J.D.)
- George Washington University (B.A.)

Bar Admissions

- Connecticut

Publications

September 26, 2025

NIH Announces New Application Structure for NIH-Funded International Collaborations That Eliminates Foreign Subawards

September 12, 2025

2025 Summary of Key Connecticut Legislation Relating to Providers of Services to the Elderly

September 12, 2024

2024 Summary of Key Connecticut Legislation Relating to Providers of Services to the Elderly

November 10, 2023

New Connecticut Law Overhauls Change of Ownership Requirements for Health Care Facilities Licensed by DPH

August 17, 2023

2023 Summary of Key Connecticut Legislation Relating to Providers of Services to the Elderly