Wiggin and Dana Partner Makes List of Top 100 Trust Lawyers In U.S.

Dan Daniels Named to Worth Magazine's Annual List

Stamford - Wiggin and Dana is proud to announce that Greenwich resident Dan Daniels, a partner in the firm's Stamford, Connecticut office, has been included in Worth magazine's list of the top 100 attorneys in the U.S. for wealthy individuals and their families.

This is the third time Daniels has been so honored. Worth's list, which is contained in the December/January issue of the magazine, was compiled by the magazine's editors based on nominations by readers, financial advisors, family office executives, accountants, academics and others who work with attorneys serving the wealthy.

Daniels concentrates his practice representing business owners, corporate executives and other wealthy individuals and their families.

A fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, he received his bachelor's degree from Dartmouth and his law degree from Harvard. Daniels authors a monthly column on estate planning in Trusts and Estates magazine with fellow Wiggin and Dana partner David Leibell.

Daniels has served on the boards of several charitable and civic organizations, including the Fairfield County Community Foundation and the Harvard Law School Association of Connecticut. He and his family live in Greenwich.

Wiggin and Dana is a 75-year old law firm with offices in Stamford, New Haven and Hartford, as well as New York and Philadelphia. With 150 attorneys, the firm serves a broad range of clients, including wealthy individuals, medium and large closely held businesses, major hospitals and universities, charitable organizations and public companies in the U.S. and Europe. The Trusts and Estates Department at Wiggin and Dana boasts of staff of over 20 lawyers and para-professionals and offers a full range of sophisticated estate and trust planning and administration services.
