STAMFORD, CT. - Wiggin and Dana LLP is pleased to announce that Leonard Leader, chair of the firm's 13-member Trusts & Estates Practice Group, has been named one of the top 100 attorneys in the country by Worth Magazine. The complete Top 100 list of attorneys serving affluent individuals will be published in Worth's December issue. Wiggin and Dana has 137 attorneys who serve clients from five offices in Connecticut, Philadelphia and New York.

"We are delighted to see Len honored in this manner," said Firm Chair Maureen Weaver. "It is wonderful to see his talent and hard work, which are hardly a secret to his clients, recognized on such a prestigious list."

Leader focuses his practice on estate and probate law, tax planning for individuals, and family business succession. He is a frequent speaker on estate and tax-planning topics to bar associations, business groups, and continuing education programs. Leader is a member of the Executive Committee of the Estate Probate Section and a member of the Taxation Section of the American Bar Association, the Generation Skipping Trusts Committee of the Estate Planning and Drafting Group of the Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section of the American Bar Association, and was Chairman of a Task Force on Charitable Easements. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Center for Family Business of the University of New Haven.

Leader holds a B.A. from City College of New York where he graduated cum laude, a J.D. from Fordham University School of Law and an LL.M. in taxation from New York University Graduate School of Law.

He is a resident of Westport, CT.
