Wiggin and Dana Firm Chair Honored Among Top Connecticut Women Business Leaders

NEW HAVEN, CT – Maureen Weaver, Chair of the Executive Committee at Wiggin and Dana LLP, has been named one of this year’s “8 Remarkable Women in Business” by the Hartford Business Journal. The annual list, which is the result of nominations submitted to the Journal, was published in the March 26 issue.

In addition to Ms. Weaver, this year’s honorees include:

Nancy Dean

President of Trust Co. of Connecticut

A. Ruth Fitzgerald

Founder and President of Fitzgerald & Halliday, Inc.

Mary Gawlicki

President of Corporate Translations

Anita Kelsey MD

Director of the Women’s Heart Program at Saint Francis Hospital and Medical Center

Kathleen Murphy

President of ING

Kristen Muschett

President and CEO of HABCO, Inc.

Ronna Reynolds

Executive Vice President of The Bushnell Center for the Performing Arts

The Journal will host a luncheon for all the honorees on May 8.

“It is very gratifying to be named among such notable women in our state,” said Ms. Weaver. “I am deeply honored and grateful to those who nominated me.”
