PRE EVENT COCKTAILS AND CONVERSATIONS ZOOM CHATROOMS

Black Lives Matter: The Conversation

Led by Brittney Yancy, Assistant Professor of Humanities at Goodwin University. Professor Yancy is an intersectional scholar-activist committed to fighting for a gender-inclusive movement for racial justice. Black Lives Matter: the Conversation will open the floor for a discussion on the current status and the role of women in the BLM Movement.

LGBTQ+ Rights: What's Happening Now...What's Next

Led by Anne Stanback, who has spent more than 30 years working for LGBTQ+ civil rights, including her work as the founding Executive Director of Love Makes A Family, the lead organization that successfully fought for the freedom to marry in Connecticut. Anne was inducted into the CWHF in 2006.

Show Me the Money: Own Your Finances

Host TBD
Will offer tips and tricks to help build and establish financial security, whether you're just starting to save or you've been investing for years.

Mirror, Mirror: Women and the Media

Led by Emme, known for three decades as the award-winning iconic American supermodel, and trusted voice in the beauty, wellness, inclusive fashion and news industries. Emme is a social reformer, sought after TV/radio/podcast host, columnist, and most currently – Executive Wellness Life Coach. Also hosting is Leslie Lindenauer, a Professor of History, with an emphasis on gender, at Western Connecticut State University. She is a proud former ED of the Connecticut Women's Hall of Fame. Mirror, Mirror will illuminate the ways women are portrayed in media and marketing and the consequences such representation creates.

Women Who Run: Political Powerhouses

Led by Patricia Russo, Executive Director, The Campaign School at Yale, a nonpartisan, issue neutral political campaign training program whose mission is to increase the number of women in public office. Patti has run political campaigns on both sides of the aisle at the federal, state and local levels. Women Who Run will open the floor for a discussion on what it's like for women to run for elected office.
