PRIVATE CLIENT SERVICES I DANIEL L. DANIELS

About the Team

Dan's team is a group of experienced and highly skilled professionals offering the full spectrum of private client services, including sophisticated tax and intergenerational planning for very wealthy individuals and their families, administration of estates and trusts and, where necessary, representing our clients in connection with trust and estate disputes. The team is supported by over two-dozen other Private Client Services group members. And if services beyond trust and estate work are needed, the team is backed by the resources of a 170-lawyer, full-service firm that has been serving the community since 1934.

A Personal Note from Dan

I joined Wiggin and Dana many years ago specifically because of the firm's reputation in the legal community as a place where lawyers and other professional staff serve each client as a team. At Wiggin, working collaboratively is in our DNA. We believe this produces superior outcomes for our clients in terms of quality, timeliness and value. And perhaps more important, it provides our clients and their families the peace of mind that comes with knowing that a set of seasoned professionals who've worked hand in hand with me on your affairs will be available to serve you and future generations of your family for years to come. I couldn't be prouder of the team we've assembled here. We look forward to showing you what we can do, together.
